Codicil to a Last Will & Testament Kit: Make a Codicil to Your Last Will in Minutes Estatebee, 2021-01-09 (US Edition) Create a Codicil to Your Last Will & Testament in Minutes..... A codicil is a document that allows you to amend your last will and testament. These amendments can be relatively minor, such as where you appoint new executors, make new gifts, or release someone from a debt. However, they can also fundamentally change the nature of your will such as where you change the person who is entitled to the residue of your estate. Codicils are relatively simple to complete and use. In most cases, they refer to an existing clause of a will and set out the amendments required to that clause. Once the codicil is completed, it needs to be signed and witnessed in the same way that the original will was. As well as including various examples of the changes that you might wish to make to your will, this self-help kit includes step-by-step instructions, detailed information and all the legal forms necessary to prepare your own codicil without the need or expense of a lawyer. □ Explores legal issues involved in preparing a codicil □ Includes examples of changes you can make to a will □ Includes a worksheet to identify potential changes □ Step-by-step instructions □ Downloadable templates

Davenport's New Jersey Wills and Estate Planning Legal Forms Alexander W. Russell, Ernest C. Hope, 2014-11-05 This book published by Davenport Press and written by attorneys has a quick review of New Jersey law and a good range of ready to use New Jersey Wills and Estate Planning legal forms. Estate planning concerns how a person can arrange things for and control upon illness or death their health care, property and money, children and dependants, legal matters, and more. Forms can be copied from the book or downloaded for free as Appendix A explains. In this book 10 main legal forms are explained and provided, which are: 1) Last Will And Testament (lets one give orders to on death gift property, choose guardians for children and their property, authorize less burdensome legal options to be used, pick person to be executor to handle affairs, and control other matters); 2) Last Will And Testament (No Guardians) (this Will form has no "Guardians" paragraph and is for people without children under 18 and also not giving property to any minors under 18); 3) Self-Proving Affidavit (this form is often done with a Will to avoid work after death of showing a Will was signed correctly by getting testimony of witnesses to the Will signing, and using this form increases the chance a Will is enforceable); 4) Tangible Personal Property List (lets one write in a simple list outside a Will wanted gifts to occur on death of "tangible personal property" like clothes, furniture, tools, cars, and jewelry, and the list can be done or redone anytime and just needs to be signed); 5) Proxy Directive (also called "Durable Power Of Attorney For Health Care" lets one give health care instructions and name a person to control health care in case one cannot later control one's own health care); 6) Instruction Directive (also called "Living Will" lets one give orders about how health care should stop if doctors later certify a person cannot control their own health care and is near death or when medical care would be of little help); 7) Do-Not-Resuscitate and P.O.L.S.T. (either of these 2 forms can be requested from a doctor when in very bad health to quickly show paramedics and other medical personnel to not try restarting the heart or breathing and some other major actions, with the P.O.L.S.T. form being more detailed and more used inside hospitals); 8) Durable General Power Of Attorney (lets power over one's money, property, and other matters be shared with a very trusted person often so they can help manage or do things); 9) Power Of Attorney Delegating Power Over Child (lets power over a child including health care and education be shared with any other person like a relative, travel companion, teacher, or friend, usually because parents will be away from a child); and 10) Codicil For Funeral Matters (lets person name another person as agent to control their funeral and disposition of bodily remains and related matters, and the form also has space for suggestions to be given to the agent).
