Cleanlots BRIAN. WINCH,2018-08-03 Cleanlots has been described as America's Simplest Business and almost as simple as a walk in the park. Entrepreneur magazine said parking lot litter cleanup is a simple, inexpensive and potentially lucrative business to get into, and the market is growing. The Cleanlots book is an operations manual on how to start and operate a parking lot litter cleanup business. Each book purchase includes FREE email and telephone support from the author. Since 1981, author Brian Winch has made a six-figure annual income cleaning up litter from parking lots, and he'll teach you to do the same. It's an excellent way to take control over your life and income; you can start this business with very little money, without a college education or advanced computer skills. It's an ideal business for anyone who likes to work outside, who's responsible and can pay attention to detail. You can also operate this business part-time, as a side hustle until you're ready to go full-time.

iteratively improve their experience. Move from theory to practice and build sustainable business success.

How to Start Your Own House Cleaning Company Angela Brown, 2016-03-09 Start a house cleaning business with this step-by-step guide and be up and running in one week. Back in the olden days before the internet was really popular and you could Google search anything, there was trial and error. If you wanted to start a house cleaning business from scratch you could, but it was rarely an overnight success for anybody. Big success was tossed to the cleaning service franchisees who could afford the fancy training, and well-built brands, while the mom and pop cleaning services were left to figure it out on their own. Good news - times have changed. As an independent house cleaner, you no longer have to wade through endless Pinterest boards for tips and ideas on how to start a house cleaning business. Angela Brown built from scratch one of the most successful independently owned and operated house cleaning companies in the Southeastern United States. If you are serious about success in the cleaning service industry, you should sign up for her free tips, tricks and time saving hacks by joining the Savvy Cleaner email list at: savvycleaner.com/tips and you follow her blog at: AskaHouseCleaner.com She has trained a multitude of independent house cleaners how to take their business from day one through expansion and enormous growth. In this step-by-step guide she'll show you: How to set up your home office What office supplies you are going to need Ideas for your company logo How to choose your company name How to choose a uniform Tips on creating your company image and brand How to set your rules and policies How to choose a territory Everything you need to know about creating flyers, worksheets and why you need them. How to bid jobs, what to charge, What kind of car you need, Confidence builders & how to build instant credentials, Bonding, insurance The magic of the Mulligan, How to get an endless stream of referrals, how much you should pay for referral fees, How to never have any billing and collections, and how to always get paid and on time. (There is a reason they call Angela Brown The House Cleaning Guru.) If you're here because you have an interest in house cleaning or in upgrading your life and you want to start a house cleaning business, welcome. House cleaning business is a 49 billion dollar a year industry that is nearly recession proof - when times get hard, people work more hours to pay the bills, they have less time at home to clean, so they outsource their cleaning - which means more business for you and me. Another awesome reason to start a house cleaning business is this: unlike a regular 9 to 5 job if you get fired, you're not out of work. You simply add another customer into your new available time slot and keep going. And you will learn here how to do such an amazing job, that you will never get fired, and your clients will never want you to leave. Franchise or Start a house cleaning business? Ask a Manager Alison Green,2018-05-01 From the creator of the popular website Ask a Manager and New York's work-advice columnist comes a witty, practical guide to 200 difficult professional conversations—featuring all-new advice! There's a reason Alison Green has been called “the Dear Abby of the work world.” Ten years as a workplace-advice columnist have taught her that people avoid awkward conversations in the office because they simply don't know what to say. Thankfully, Green does—and in this incredibly helpful book, she tackles the tough discussions you may need to have during your career. You'll learn what to say when • coworkers push their work on you—then take credit for it • you accidentally trash-talk someone in an email then hit “reply all” • you're being micromanaged—or not being managed at all • you catch a colleague in a lie • your boss seems unhappy with your work • your cubemate's loud speakerphone is making you homicidal • you got drunk at the holiday party Praise for Ask a Manager “A must-read for anyone who works . . . [Alison Green's] advice boils down to the idea that you should be professional (even when others are not) and that communicating in a straightforward manner with candor and kindness will get you far, no matter where you work.”—Booklist (starred review) “The author's friendly, warm, no-nonsense writing is a pleasure to read, and her advice can be widely applied to relationships in all areas of readers' lives. Ideal for anyone new to the job market or new to management, or anyone hoping to improve their work experience.”—Library Journal (starred review) “I am a huge fan of Alison Green's Ask a Manager column. This book is even better. It teaches us how to deal with many of the most vexing big and little problems in our workplaces—and to do so with grace, confidence, and a sense of humor.”—Robert Sutton, Stanford professor and author of The No Asshole Rule and The

Asshole Survival Guide “Ask a Manager is the ultimate playbook for navigating the traditional workforce in a diplomatic but firm way.”—Erin Lowry, author of Broke Millennial: Stop Scraping By and Get Your Financial Life Together
