Web 2.0 Tools in Concept Teaching Zeynep Tatlı, Ali Şükrü Özbay,2021-11-30 Currently, students are interested in more than one thing at the same time, preferring to use visuals and infographics, rather than writing, in the learning process. In addition, these students use technology better in the education process, as in all aspects of daily life, as they meet technology at an earlier age than their teachers. Therefore, teachers should also update themselves according to these learner characteristics. In particular, "assessment" and "evaluation" are two of the topics that students may not enjoy to their fullest extent. This book serves to make the assessment process fun and interactive, as well as to inform teachers about the different applications they can do in this process. It invites teachers to introduce highly interactive applications and make their classes active in the learning process.

Instant Profits Guide to Video Stories Marketing Success Hillary Scholl,2018-08-18 You Can Drive Brand Awareness, Grow Traffic & Increase Sales with Video Stories Marketing Image and video marketing has never been more important. Video marketing is known to increase revenue by 49%. Imagine if you started getting 50% more sales in your business. What would you do with that increase? Would you expand your business even more? If you think about video marketing and instantly feel overwhelmed, it's understandable. Videos can be a more complex form of advertising. But the good news is that videos can be created quickly and easily once you know what to do. Developing Your Image and Video Marketing Strategy

Focusing on image and video marketing in your business shouldn't be done lightly. Like all business endeavors, it helps to have a plan. Follow new online trending application you'll feel more confident and find it easier to create videos. This book will offer the technique and solution to create your video , and how to incorporate them into your strategy Storytelling has always been popular, particularly when it comes to marketing. However, stories have emerged as an amazing strategy to use in conjunction with social media marketing. If you want to attract more business with social media stories, incorporate more visuals, interact with your target market, and meet your business goals you're about to learn how. However, this doesn't mean you'll have to put in a lot of extra time and effort to achieve your goals. In fact, this is an opportune time to make the needed changes. I say this because now is your chance to implement a very beneficial marketing method, social media stories. These highly visual content forms, appeal to wide range of target markets, from young adults to the over-30 crowd. But, the best part is that with a little planning, social media stories can help you meet goals in every area of your business from website traffic to repeat sales. Social media stories are still new, in the big scheme of things. By adding these very visual stories now, you can still get early-adoption benefits, which include being one of the people in your niche, who is on the ball with the latest marketing methods. If creating visual content makes you want to run for the hills, you're not alone. Producing videos can be scary and creating images may seem out of your league, but they're not! I'll show you how to quickly attract more business with social media stories, incorporate more visuals, interact with your target market, and meet your business goals. It's a lot easier than you think and I'll tell you a little secret, I am not particularly creative when it comes to images and videos. I don't have that natural "vision" that designers have. BUT...I do know my audience and what they want, which is very important to attracting and motivating them. Why audiences love social media stories: Whole stories can be consumed in seconds. Stories with hashtags are easy to find and access. Relevant stories make audiences feel more involved and important. Audiences like seeing the "real" you in "real life" situations. It's more personal. Stories address their impulse wants, as well as here-and-now needs. Visual stories excite, intrigue, and empower the viewer with choices. Stories can provide many, highly-visual forms of info within one story.

The LITA Guide to No- or Low-Cost Technology Tools for Libraries Breanne A. Kirsch, 2018-02-13 The LITA Guide to No- or Low-Cost Technology Tools for Libraries provides a practical guide on how to find and use technology tools for a variety of purposes in libraries and, more broadly, in education. Each topic showcases two technology tools in detail and discusses additional tools and provides examples of how librarians or educators are using them in libraries and schools. Types of tools covered are: Video creation tools, such as PowToon and Animaker, can be used to create animated videos to tell patrons about a new service or teach students about search strategies. Screencasts includes tools like Jing or Screencast-O-Matic, which can be used to show how to use a new library database or service. Collaboration tools, including tools such as Padlet or Lino It, can be used for student collaboration or teamwork with colleagues and sharing project ideas quickly and easily. Assessment tools such as Quizizz and Kahoot allow for gamified assessment of student or patron knowledge.

Social Media for Creative Libraries Phil Bradley,2015-01-15 Social Media for Creative Libraries explains how librarians and information professionals can use online tools to communicate more effectively, teach people different skills and to market and promote their service faster, cheaper and more effectively. Based on his acclaimed work How to Use Web 2.0 in Your Library, Phil Bradley has restructured and comprehensively updated this new book to focus on the activities that information professionals carry out on a daily basis, before then analysing and explaining how online tools can assist them in those activities. The book includes: - a discussion of authority checking and why information professionals are needed more than ever in a social media world - a guide to creating great presentations online - how online tools can make teaching and training sessions easier and more enjoyable for information professionals - useful tips for implementing new strategies in libraries and a discussion of the practicalities of library marketing and promotion - how to create a good social media policy and why - a look at a few social media disasters and how they could have been avoided Readership: Packed with features and accompanied by introductory videos on the Facet Publishing YouTube channel, Social Media for Creative Libraries is essential reading for all library and information professionals.

How to Create Explainer Videos Ina Koys,2023-05-03 To explain complex context and relations, there is a tool already on each office workplace: PowerPoint. But many users are not aware of what it can really achieve: not only record anything of what one does on the screen - it also can do videos with intricate animations. Elements can be displayed or hidden, created step by step or morph one to another. The audience will focus on the subject, the message is clear and the larger context will be understood. This booklet concentrates on creating videos for teaching and demonstration. No other hard- or software needed. The resulting videos can be stored or shared anywhere you like.

Storyboard Notebook 16 Simple Storyboards, 2020-01-30 What is storyboarding? Storyboarding is about taking a script or a concept and turning it into a visual story using storyboards. You need to be able to draw well enough to allow yourself or your production team to envision and develop your ideas, test how they will work, and highlight any potential obstacles with the structure or layout of the story before you begin production. Therefore you need to practice. Open a storyboard blank template and sketch your ideas. If they don't work or if you come up with a better idea, rub them out and sketch out new ones. The more you understand about how to make your production visually interesting in your sketches the better your end product will be. Add notes about what's going on in your images. Refer to the front cover to see what you might like to record in the spaces above and below each panel, but I have left the spaces blank inside the storyboard book because you will want to use different criteria according to each project, or what stage you are up to in each project. There is an index at the front of your storyboard movie maker to bookmark whatever suits your project best. (Initial thumbnails, first draft, new chapters, new projects, particularly good ideas etc.) By the end of the storyboarding notebook you will be able to go through your storyboard writing examples and track your progress and you will have a record of what works best for you. Do more of what worked best. I hope you become an awesome storyboarder!:) Paperback - 130 pages - 8.5 x 11

Creating Training Videos Jonathan Halls, 2024-04-09 LIKE FILM SCHOOL FOR TRAINERS! Film and edit effective training videos—using your smartphone. Whether you’re a facilitator, instructional designer, or L&D department of one, you don’t need a fancy DSLR camera or film crew to create successful training videos. All you really need is a learning strategy, a good production plan, and a smartphone camera. Informed by his 30-year career in training and media, including his time as learning executive with the BBC, author Jonathan Halls is committed to best practices in video production that will actually help your learners to learn, and without a giant strain on your resources. With straightforward and accessible language, in Creating Training Videos you’ll get:

- The intersection of media and learning research: Uncover how your videos can effectively provoke learning.
- Best practices for instructional video: Create a smart outline for your instructional video, creatively use repetition, highlight schemas that are familiar to your audience, and more.
- Visual grammar: Learn rules of film that you can put into effect immediately, like framing your shots and selecting the best shot sizes to more powerfully support learning.
- Planning your pictures: Gain a practical framework for mapping out the elements of your video using storyboards, shot formulas, and narrative templates designed to meet various training needs.
- Understand how picture, graphics, spoken word, and more come together to tell your story.
- Your videographer’s toolkit: An honest discussion of essential gear, helpful gear, and the serious tools you might consider for your toolkit.
- Filming with your smartphone: Learn how to best light, stabilize, and frame your shots using the tool you already have in your pocket.
- Editing and workflow: Stitch shots together for a powerful final product that supports learning, no matter what software you decide to use (yes, even an app on your phone!), and workflow considerations that satisfy all of your stakeholders.

With 96 percent of organizations using video as a key modality for workplace learning and 62 percent of organizations posting video (for L&D and other purposes) to YouTube, the ability to produce video is a sought-after skill in the L&D world. Creating Training Videos teaches you step-by-step how to plan, film, and edit smart instructional content—using only a smartphone and without compromising quality and success.
