In the Blink of an Eye Celistine Moors,2021-04-27 I call on you, O God, for you will answer me; give ear to me and hear my prayer (Psalm 17:6). Everyone in the house must call on our Lord and Savior. The fear of the voices that screamed through the long vacant hallways sent chills and terror through all who occupy the house. Someone's voice, not recognizable, whispered in the background, Have you not forgotten about why we are here? Everyone in the room abruptly stood up. That was a child's voice! someone shouted. The group rose to their feet and started looking in every corner for the child who had spoken, to no avail. Everyone was starting to understand that they must continue to work together to continue to fight the evil. It was time again to kneel down and pray.

Jagged Truth Emily Kimelman, Robert Maxim's smirk feels a little like home, like the scary exciting basement steps with their shadows and hints of unnatural powers. A cold wind rushes across the fallow corn field, pulling at my cargo pants and dipping into the open neck of my long overcoat. It's too large for me, drooping off the shoulders and buttoned around my son, James, as he sleeps against my chest in his baby carrier. Blue's nose taps my hip. My son's breath warms my chest. This is home. They say you can't ever go home again—but I think they're wrong. No matter where I stand, as long as I have these two with me, I am home. Robert Maxim, on the other hand...I know I don't belong with him although he doesn't agree. The man is richer and more powerful than anyone should be. He holds as much sway over our world as the basement steps over the imagination of a child—it's a death grip that makes no sense. Here he stands now, the same cold wind bracketing me, teasing his hair—sable but silvered at the temples, just like a real villain. His ebony coat fits him perfectly, the material the kind of soft black that absorbs light. When we are ten feet away, Robert stirs, moving forward to meet us. Sydney, he says in that voice of his, looking at me with those oceanic eyes, smiling with that smirk. Robert's gaze drops to Blue. Blue, he says, nodding a greeting. Blue's tail wags, and he lets out a warble. Robert's smirk spreads into a smile. Blue doesn't hate Robert Maxim. Which is a point in Robert's favor. But there are too many checkmarks in the this guy is a dangerous psychopath column to totally trust Blue's assessment that he shouldn't be mauled on sight. Robert, I say, tilting my chin up. His gaze shifts to the bulge under my coat. My arms circle James. The black wool coat reaches past my knees covering James's body, keeping him hidden and warm. He's asleep. I've so looked forward to meeting him. I spent James's entire life—all eleven months of it—hiding. Not just from Robert Maxim, but he was one of the key components that made me want to bury myself away from the world. I may believe you can find home no matter where you are...but that also means you can't ever run away from yourself. Wherever you go, there you are...and in my case Robert Maxim is there too. I left you, Robert. You must realize that I'm not going to let you be in my son's life. No? His gaze drops to the top of James's head. He leans forward to get a peek at his face, and the emotion that steals over Robert Maxim breaks off a piece of my heart and runs away with it. You can have it all, Robert says. Any thing or person you desire. He throws the word desire at me like it's mine, like I should own it. All of your wants and needs can be met. You just have to allow yourself to have them. His eyes come back to mine. Can you do that, Sydney? Let yourself have everything you want? How do I get you to just leave me alone? His nostrils flare, and the skin around his eyes tighten. You can have that too. I'm not here to force you into my bed, Sydney. I'm here to save your life. P.S. The dog does not die. Beware: If you can't handle a few f-bombs, you can't handle this series.

Fire Watcher Lilith Saintcrow,2006-05-05 . . . a one-of-a-kind author. --Romantic Times magazine on To Hell and Back

The Fire Witch Elise Nicholson isn't your ordinary witch. For one thing, she can light candles with a look, and she plays a mean guitar. Unfortunately, being able to call fire out of the air isn't the most useful skill around. To top it off, she's a Guardian of the City, and the other Guardians--her two best friends--have no time for her. They're too busy with their Watchers, the grim, black-coated warriors sworn to protect Elise and her friends from the Dark. Lonely, skating the edge of controlling her intensified gifts, Elise is quickly running out of options and patience. Then the Trifero--a Talisman capable of blowing the city sky-high--lands in her lap, and everything just gets worse. The Watcher: Remy is the Hunter, snatching Talismans away from the Dark and struggling with the constant agony of being a Watcher. Then he's assigned to stand guard over a smart-mouthed fire witch who not only hates Watchers, but has just found the Trifero. If the Dark catches Elise, she'll be broken, turned into a magical weapon, and sold to the highest bidder. Not only does Remy have to get to her first and keep the Dark away, but he also must convince Elise that he means her no harm--and that's the easy part of the job. If he pulls this one off, he just might redeem himself the way every Watcher aches to do. But if he fails, both he and Elise might be better off dead . . . Bounced around the world as a military brat, Lilith Saintcrow fell in love with writing in second grade and never looked back. She currently resides in Vancouver, Washington, with two children, a menagerie, and books. Find her on the web at lilithsaintcrow.com.
