Kids love animals, the sea, and especially the wondrous creatures that belong to it. Since time immemorial, the mystery and charm of majestic sea creatures have captivated little ones. If your child is no exception, introduce them to even more happiness in the form of the narwhal, commonly known as the unicorn of the sea! Familiar and curious children alike will love this 66-page Narwhal Activity Book with three different activities: coloring, tracing, and dot-to-dots. These exercises aren't only just fun; they also help your child to develop their skill with a pencil. The coloring pages included in the book will test their ability to stay within the boundaries of the lines. Meanwhile, dot-to-dot and tracing activities will encourage them to keep a steady hand, increasing their penmanship overall and building a strong foundation for their future. We believe that the activities your child or student completes from their Narwhal Activity Book should endure the test of time. For that reason, between each of our 8.5 x 11 inch pages illustration is a blank black page built to combat any bleed-through from coloring tools. Our activity pages are single-sided, so your child can focus more on their enjoyment of each page and less on ruining the next one!
