The Little Red Christmas Light Daniel Cray,2013-08-13 The Little Red Christmas Light has a secret: he's different from other lights. For some mysterious reason he can swivel out of his socket, hop about, and shine without electricity. He can even chat with the local wildlife or startle intruders with a high-energy burst of his bulb. But he's never been out of the family's decoration box after December... never, that is, until now. When an enthusiastic young brother and sister begin their Christmas decorating in summer-- just like the stores-- the Little Red Christmas Light enters a strange new world filled with lawn-eating machines and backyard 'monsters.' But he also makes new friends and discovers there's a reason he is so very different... all while cementing a wondrous bond between himself and the children who love their magical red friend. The Little Red Christmas Light is perfect for one-on-one story time with little ones, and little ones at heart. Each chapter is a standalone story, but they also form an overarching story.
