Trivia A-Z for Seniors Steve Vernon,2021-02-12 Trivia A-Z for Seniors is the culmination of about 6 years of a weekly team trivia activity I designed and led for the residents at a senior living community where I worked for nearly 10 years. Beginning almost as a fluke, it quickly developed into one of the most popular and consistently successful activities in the community. Unlike so many collections of trivia and trivia quizzes, focus was on gearing the questions to the particular age group.Similar to the original weekly team trivia model, the book has been formatted, for the most part, in 10-question rounds as that seems to work well with regard to both time and attention span. Also, this format will allow activity leaders in any setting to easily pull out what they would like to use for a particular event without having to spend valuable time searching the internet for trivia questions and organizing each event themselves. A handy printable Answer & Score Sheet can be found just before the index at the end of this book. My hope is that you will find the content of these pages fun and useful for weeks and months to come, whether you are involved with a local senior living community or RV park, community center, or wherever seniors may tend to gather. The book can also make an excellent gift for friends or family members who love trivia or are looking for ways to keep their mind active.
