Using Digital Portfolios to Develop Students' Writing Ricky Lam, Benjamin Luke Moorhouse, 2022-11-07 This book equips pre-service teachers, research postgraduate students, teacher educators, and language specialists with specific knowledge and skills about the principles, research, and applications of digital portfolios within the EFL writing contexts. While most digital portfolio scholarship focuses on higher education, this book targets primary-level and secondary-level school audiences, namely pre-service teachers, teacher educators, and Ministry of Education staff members with a focus on EFL writing. The rationale behind this design is that the published literature on digital portfolios tends to be generic and one-size-fits-all; there has been scant published scholarship about the development of digital portfolio literacy among teachers and pupils, which could enable them to upgrade the teaching and learning of writing in a larger EFL environment. This volume fills this gap by illustrating the why, what, and how aspects of digital portfolios in ten reader-friendly chapters. Guiding educators to enrich their pedagogical repertoire via the portfolio approach, this book emphasises a healthy balance between principles, research, and practice. It is an easy-to-follow guide to setting up digital portfolio systems and coaching pupils to improve writing, ensuring the dissemination of digital portfolios with high fidelity.

Next Stop Everywhere Elissa Title,2021-10-02 NEXT STOP EVERYWHERE is a two-year long project that Elissa undertook, inspired by a professor, to document her travels. Previously, she had combined her love of writing with photography into her Globetrotting Elissa blog but nothing compares to holding a physical book. With a BFA in Graphic Design from Chapman University, she decided she'd design, write, and publish a photography book entirely from scratch. Once the design was done, she went back through the entire book to make sure everything was cohesive, lined up, and exceeding her nit picky design standards. Two years later, she is proud to share the final product with you and she hopes it inspires you to explore the world... whether your local wilderness or someplace more exotic. Her passport is always ready. Where to next?
